

Francesco Tassi

Economic Development Research Intern

ftassi@crec.net

Francesco is a candidate for degrees in City and Regional Planning and Public Administration at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He received his B.A. in Economics at the University of Notre Dame, and is originally from Florence, Italy. As an economic development research intern, he has worked on CREC's business incentives database, the Development District Association of Appalachia (DDAA), manages the Association of Public Data Users (APDU) newsletter, assists on the EDA CARES project, and has worked on client projects for the state of Colorado in workforce development and Louisiana in economic impact assessment. In his free time, he tends to way too many houseplants and enjoys playing tennis.