

Dennis Stripling is currently serving as the Executive Director at West Alabama Regional Commission in Northport Alabama. He is Vice-President of the Alabama Association of Regional Councils. He was elected Mayor of Brent Alabama in 2004 and served 4 terms, as Mayor he was an active member of the Alabama League of Municipalities where he served on the Executive Committee earning his Certified Municipal Official Emeritus Certification. Dennis was appointed by Governor Kay Ivey to serve on the Alabama Department of Mental Health Board of Trustees where he also serves at 2nd Vice-President representing Bibb County on the Indian Rivers Behavioral Health Board serving Bibb, Pickens, and Tuscaloosa Counties in West Alabama.

He and his wife Lori reside in Brent Alabama, enjoying 4-month-old grandson Kipton Thomas McGee.