

Ellen Gaus is a graduate of Duquesne University and previously interned with the Urban Redevelopment Authority of Pittsburgh prior to joining the Allegheny Conference on Community Development in 2016. Ellen analyzes strategic areas of regional interest regarding business investment and regional vitality and produces numerous products supporting the mission of the Conference, which includes economic impact reports, quarterly vitals and more. Outside of work, Ellen enjoys volunteering with numerous organizations in the Pittsburgh area all in an effort to better the environment and community she lives in.