

Jamie Vaughn

NCcareers Manager, Labor and Economic Analysis Division
North Carolina Department of Commerce

Jamie Vaughn is the NCcareers Manager at the NC Department of Commerce's Labor and Economic Analysis Division. With over two decades of experience in labor market information, Jamie performs economic and occupational research, LMI training, and manages the NCcareers.org Career Information System. His diverse background includes roles in economic development with the NC Department of Commerce's Business and Industry Division and the Chatham County Economic Development Corporation, as well as workforce development experience with the Durham Workforce Development Board. Jamie holds a bachelor's degree in economics from The University of North Carolina at Asheville and an M.B.A. from Florida State University. A native North Carolinian, he resides in Chapel Hill with his wife and two sons.”