

Hope Knight – Office of Strategic Workforce Development

We are very fortunate to have strong support from Governor Hulkel and the state legislature.

ESD launched the Office of Strategic Workforce Development to coordinate statewide efforts. We have a dedicated pool of $150 million in new funding to support employer driven workforce training programs. We always welcome additional resources, but this governor and the legislature recognize the value and importance of this initiative.